WDIY Announces a Continued Media Partnership with Godfrey Daniels Listening Room.

(Lehigh Valley, PA) WDIY 88.1 FM is pleased to highlight the performance of Red Molly, with an opening performance from the Jason Spooner Trio, at 8 p.m. on Saturday, January 5th at Godfrey Daniels coffee shop and listening room located in Southside Bethlehem.

Red Molly consists of a three part harmonious mixture of song with guitar, banjo, mandolin and Dobro presented by singer / instrumentalists Laurie MacAllister, Abbie Gardner and Carolann Solebello. Just two years after releasing their first live album Never Been to Vegas in December of 2005, Red Molly is noted as having flawless musicianship, intoxicating energy, and a captivating artistry through their blend of original tunes and carefully selected cover songs. Their performance is known to leave you wanting more.

Singer/songwriter and acoustic musician, Jason Spooner along with bassist, Andy Rice and Reed Chambers on percussion make up the trio. New England-based Spooner has won the International finals of the 2007 Mountain Stage NewSong contest in New York City and was honored as a national finalist in the 2007 Starbucks Music Makers competition held in Boston. Spooner's songwriting brings you to a "unique space between the literal and the psychological," while often able to "ignite the listener's imagination."

Godfrey Daniels is a charming, non-profit, member-supported coffee shop and listening room on the south side has been hosting live contemporary and traditional folk musical performances for over 30 years.

Tune to WDIY 88.1 FM for Live From Godfrey Daniels programming every Tuesday from 7p.m. to 9 p.m. Additional information on the featured artists can be found at www.redmolly.com or www.jasonspooner.com. Visit www.wdiy.org for upcoming highlighted performances at held at Godfrey Daniels in 2008.
